CLARK: Chain saw. 3 meds because he -- because they were making him fat. 3 MOM: But what the hell was he reaching for his 4 MR. CLARK: Yeah. 4 chain saw for? MOM: You know, and puffy. You know, he's in 5 5 MR. CLARK: To try to kill Vernon. 6 there anyway doing nothing, so he's getting puffy, and 6 MOM: There you go. So what does that imply 7 that's making him puffier. And --7 right there? And Vernon was in a caged yard. You know, 8 MR. CLARK: He's going to end up fighting with 8 it was a fenced yard. The woman also said that the gate 9 9 was closed and locked. somebody. 10 MOM: So -- so -- well, they don't let him have 10 MR. CLARK: So it wasn't like he was getting out 11 any contact, you know, with anybody. They don't let him 11 very easily without getting hit in the back or stabbed 12 have group. That's why -- that's their excuse, is that, 12 or --13 you know, they don't know who is going to --13 MOM: Yes. 14 MR. CLARK: Because of me. 14 MR. CLARK: - hit with a rock or anything. 15 MOM: Uh-huh. 15 MOM: Right. So --16 MR. CLARK: Because of me. You know, I mean, I 16 MR. CLARK: So I'm -- so, yeah, so that's --MOM: And so Vernon -- Vernon made a statement 17 17 didn't want him to go through that but it was already in 18 18 the -- in effect anyway, you know. to the police, very good, according to what his attorney 19 MOM: Well, yeah, but he's the one that put his 19 said, and, you know, so -- so he's not going to have 20 idiot out -- in an idiot position. But it's costing me 20 21 money, costing your dad money, you know. 21 MR. CLARK: Go up on the stand. 22 MR. CLARK: Yeah. 22 MOM: -- to go up on the stand, so they don't MOM: But I just don't want to see him going 23 23 have to pull up his background, you know. 24 to -- you know, to prison for 20 years for some stupid 24 MR. CLARK: No, that's probably the best thing 25 ass bullshit. 25 about that. Page 7 Page 9 MR. CLARK: Yeah. MOM: Yeah. 1 1 MOM: I mean, not that it wasn't his fault. I MR. CLARK: Did you know -- did you know, if I 2 2 3 3 mean, it was his fault in the sense that he -- he didn't do what I did, they were going to try to charge 4 protected himself, but -- but you know what I mean, but 4 you and Jeannette. 5 it was his fault in the sense that he put himself in 5 MOM: Well, I know you said that. 6 6 MR. CLARK: I don't think I ever told Jeannette 7 MR. CLARK: Yeah. Yeah, he put himself in that 7 that though. But I couldn't let that happen. Vernon 8 situation. 8 would have went down too. 9 9 MOM: Yeah. MOM: For what? Were we informed that we were 10 MR. CLARK: I mean, if he could -- you know, he 10 doing anything that was illegal? was just -- I mean, right now they got him with second 11 11 MR. CLARK: It doesn't -- it doesn't matter. I 12 degree. 12 mean, the three-ways -- any three-ways that you did for 13 MOM: Uh-huh. 13 any -- any of them dudes was promoting. You know, and MR. CLARK: If he could even just get it dropped that's -- that's what you call that. You know, you 14 14 15 down to manslaughter, any manslaughter, he'd be all 15 might have just got probation or something, but --MOM: Yeah, but how could that be considered 16 right. 16 17 MOM: But it ain't going to -- it ain't going to 17 promoting? There -- there's no recording or anything 18 go through with second-degree. The most they'll get him 18 that says that I can't do a three-way for you. 19 for is manslaughter. You know, by the time they get 19 MR. CLARK: Yeah, but see, with the way they 20 through with everything because, you know, from what the 20 look at it is that you're helping to -- the way -- the 21 21 attorney has told me, you know, what's been said, you way the law is set up is if you're helping someone to 22 know, the -- the -- the witness, you know, she was the 22 promote any kind of criminal activity because so and so 23 one that said este Jose was reaching for a --23 said this on the phone or I said this on the phone or 24 24 you sent somebody money or -- or anything like that. MR. CLARK: Yes. MOM: Uh-huh. 25 MOM: -- whatever the hell you call that, chain 25
